

1NORTHWEST REGIONAL LIBRARY
WIRELESS ACCESS POLICY

Wireless Internet Access uses radio frequency signals to exchange data between your computer and the network without a need for computer cables. The Northwest Regional Library offers free wireless access using Wi-Fi 802.11 b/g capability.

The Library's wireless network is not secure. Information sent from or to your laptop can be captured by anyone else with a wireless device and the appropriate software.

Library staff is unable to provide technical assistance.

The Library assumes no responsibility for the safety of equipment or laptop configurations, security or data files resulting from connection to the library's network.

All users are expected to use the library's wireless access in a legal, responsible manner and consistent with the library's policy for Internet Use (see below).
